The whole book was kinda corny and just made me feel really uncomfortable and awkward. It could have been a great story , had a good storyline, but all the conversations and interactions were really corny and awkward. Sheltered(26) By: Charlotte Stein. Only one that people did casually, after years together. "I caught a rat the size of a small dog in a saucepan. After that, I spent about four hours sketching random things in my sketch book while my art theory Professor droned on about Warhol. And then I went out and got another tattoo, before coming here."
